

ATOMIC BROKERAGE LLC
MARGIN SUPPLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Margin Supplement Agreement (“Margin Supplement”) applies to your Account with Atomic Brokerage LLC (“Atomic Brokerage”) acting as Introducing Broker to a Carrying Broker, to the extent you elect and are approved for a margin account.

1. Margin Account Disclosure Statement

Before trading stocks in a Margin Account, you should carefully review this Margin Supplement.

When you purchase securities, you may pay for the securities in full or you may borrow part of the purchase price from Atomic Brokerage. If you choose to borrow funds from Atomic Brokerage, you will open a Margin Account with Atomic Brokerage. The securities purchased are the firm’s collateral for the loan to you. If the securities in your account decline in value, so does the value of the collateral supporting your loan, and, as a result, the Atomic Brokerage can take action, such as issue a margin call and/or sell securities or other assets in any of your accounts held with the member, in order to maintain the required equity in the account.

It is important that you fully understand the risks involved in trading securities on margin. Please review our full Margin Account Disclosure Statement appended hereto.

Any margin extended to you in connection with your Account is provided by Atomic Brokerage. You understand that you are liable for the full amount of funds borrowed in your Margin Account and will be liable to repay this amount in full on demand. Further, all securities in your Brokerage Account shall be subject to a general lien and security interest in Atomic Brokerage’s favor for the discharge of your indebtedness to Atomic Brokerage. By applying for a Margin Account or placing an order on margin, you acknowledge that you have carefully considered all of the factors set forth in this Margin Supplement and have decided that margin financing is appropriate for you.

Margin positions are initiated by you. You agree to consider carefully your own financial condition, risk tolerance, and investment objectives, as well as market conditions, before you decide to use margin credit or short account features. You acknowledge that we have made available to you certain information relating to margin trading and that before submitting your application for a Margin Account, you had an opportunity to review this information.

Margin Accounts are not necessarily appropriate for everyone. Nothing in this Agreement, any application, or any communication or other statement by Atomic Brokerage or its representatives constitutes any form of recommendation to open a Margin Account or make any specific investment or strategy. You understand that margin trading involves interest charges and risks, including the potential to lose more than deposited or the need to deposit additional collateral in a falling market. Before applying for a Margin Account and before using margin, you must determine whether this type of account or trading strategy is right for you given your specific investment objectives, experience, risk tolerance, and financial situation. If you have, or have applied or elected to have, a Margin Account, you represent that you have read and understand this Margin Supplement Agreement, including Item 10 (“Day Trading Risk Disclosure,”) and that you fully understand the risks involved in borrowing margin and trading securities on margin.

2. Pledge of Securities: Hypothecation and Dividends

Within the limitations imposed by applicable laws, rules, and regulations, all securities now or hereafter held by Atomic Brokerage, or carried by Atomic Brokerage in any account for you (either individually or jointly with others), or deposited to secure same, may from time to time, without any notice, be pledged, repledged, hypothecated or re-hypothecated, separately or in common with other securities, for the sum due to you thereon or for a greater sum and without retaining in your possession or control for delivery a like amount of similar securities. Pursuant to industry standards, in signing this agreement, you are agreeing to allow Atomic Brokerage to borrow your securities from your Margin Account. If your securities pay a dividend or other distribution and is loaned out on the record date for that payment, you may receive a payment in lieu of dividend instead of a qualifying dividend because the IRS requires Broker-Dealers to treat dividend payments on loaned securities positions as payments received in lieu of dividends for 1099 tax reporting purposes. Accordingly, U.S. individuals may receive payments in lieu of dividends rather than actual dividends. Payments in lieu of dividends are subject to a higher tax rate and would be reported to you on an IRS Form 1099-MISC instead of an IRS Form 1099-DIV. By entering into this agreement, you expressly assume responsibility for tax implications and adverse consequences, which may arise from entering into this agreement.

In the event the undersigned's securities have been loaned by Atomic Brokerage on the record date of a shareholder vote involving those securities, the undersigned agrees that the undersigned's vote may be reduced to reflect the total amount of the undersigned's securities loaned by Atomic Brokerage.

3. Interest

You agree to maintain, at all times, such securities, commodities, and other property in the accounts of the undersigned for margin purposes as Atomic Brokerage shall require from time to time via a margin call or other request, and the monthly debit balances or adjusted balances in the accounts of the undersigned with Atomic Brokerage shall be charged, in accordance with Atomic Brokerage practices outlined in Atomic Brokerage LLC Margin Interest Calculations as disclosed to you pursuant to the provisions of Rule 10b-16 of the Exchange Act, with interest at a rate permitted by laws of the state of New York. It is understood that the interest charge made to the undersigned's account at the close of a charge period will be added to the opening balance for the next charge period unless paid.

4. Margin Requirements; Margin Calls

You agree to maintain in your Account with Atomic Brokerage such positions and margins as required by all applicable statutes, rules, regulations, procedures, and custom, or as you deem necessary or advisable. You agree to promptly satisfy all margin and maintenance calls. In regard to margin calls, whether for maintenance or any other margin call, in lieu of immediate liquidations, Atomic Brokerage may permit you a period of time to satisfy a call. This time period shall not in any way waive or diminish Atomic Brokerage's right in its sole discretion, to shorten the time period in which the undersigned may satisfy the call, including one already outstanding, or to demand that a call be satisfied immediately. Nor does such practice waive or diminish either Atomic Brokerage, or our clearing firm, to sell out positions to satisfy the call, which can be as high as the full indebtedness owed by you. Margin requirements may be established and changed by Atomic Brokerage in its sole discretion and judgement without notice to the undersigned. In making this determination, Atomic Brokerage may take into account various factors including but not limited to:

- (i) issues as to the undersigned's securities such as, among others, the liquidity of a position and concentrations of securities in an account,
- (ii) considerations as to the undersigned's status, including but not limited to a decline in creditworthiness,
- (iii) the size of the account,
- (iv) the general condition of the market,
- (v) considerations as to the ability of Atomic Brokerage to obtain financing, and
- (vi) regulatory interpretations or guidance.

5. Breach; Security Interest

Whenever in its discretion Atomic Brokerage considers it necessary for Atomic Brokerage's or your protection or in the event of, but not limited to; (i) any breach by you of this or any other agreement with Atomic Brokerage or its affiliates or (ii) your failure to pay for securities and other property purchased or to deliver securities and other property sold, Atomic Brokerage may sell any or all securities and other property held in any of your Accounts or accounts held with any of our Affiliates (either individually or jointly with others), cancel or complete any open orders for the purchase or sale of any securities and other property, or borrow or buy any securities and other property required to make delivery against any sale, including a short sale, effected for you, all without notice or demand for deposit of collateral, other notice of sale or purchase, or other notice or advertisement, each of which you expressly waive. Further, Atomic Brokerage may require you to deposit cash or adequate collateral to your Account prior to any settlement date to assure the performance or payment of any open contractual commitments or unsettled transactions in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the New York Stock Exchange, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") or any other regulatory agency, to whose jurisdiction Atomic Brokerage may be subject or in our sole discretion. Atomic Brokerage has the right to refuse to execute securities transactions for you at any time and for any reason. Any and all securities and other property now or hereafter held, carried, or maintained by Atomic Brokerage in or for any of your Accounts (either individually or jointly with others), now or hereafter opened, including any accounts in which you may have an interest, shall be subject to a first and prior lien and security interest for the discharge of all of your obligations to Atomic Brokerage, whenever or however arising and without regard to whether or not Atomic Brokerage has made advances with respect to such securities and other property, and Atomic Brokerage is hereby authorized to sell or purchase any and all securities and other property in any of your Accounts, or to transfer any such securities and other property among any of your Accounts, to the fullest extent allowed by law and without notice where allowed by law. Atomic Brokerage shall have the right to transfer securities and other property so held by Atomic Brokerage from or to any other of your Accounts whenever Atomic Brokerage so determines.

6. Liquidation

You acknowledge and agree that Atomic Brokerage may, in its sole discretion, whenever Atomic Brokerage considers it necessary for Atomic Brokerage's protection, effect the liquidation of any securities and other property in the Margin Account. Situations in which Atomic Brokerage may exercise this right include but shall not be limited to: (i) your failure to promptly meet any call for additional collateral; (ii) the filing of a petition in bankruptcy by or against you; (iii) the appointment of a receiver is filed by or against you; (iv) an attachment is levied against any of your accounts or the Margin Account or any Atomic Brokerage account in which you have an interest; (v) the margin in any of your accounts in which you have an interest becomes unsatisfactory or deemed insufficient or (vi) upon your death. Upon the event of 6(vi) above, Atomic Brokerage is hereby authorized; (a) to sell any or all securities or other property which Atomic Brokerage may hold for you (either individually or jointly with others); (b) to buy any or all securities and other property which may be short in such accounts; or (c) to cancel any open orders and to close any or all outstanding contracts; all without demand for margin or additional margin, notice of sale or purchase, or other notice or advertisement, each of which is waived by you and that any prior demand or notice shall not be a waiver of Atomic Brokerage's rights provided herein. Atomic Brokerage may likewise accept and rely upon instructions which Atomic Brokerage receives from affiliated or unaffiliated investment advisers, to take, make, or effect any of the aforementioned actions or transactions. Atomic Brokerage shall have the discretion to determine which securities and other property are to be sold and which orders or contracts are to be closed. Any such sales or purchases may be made at Atomic Brokerage's discretion on any exchange, the over-the-counter market, or any other market where such business is usually transacted, or at public auction or private sale, and Atomic Brokerage may be the purchaser for its own account. A prior demand, or call, or prior notice, of the time and place of such sale or purchase, shall not be considered a waiver of Atomic Brokerage's right to sell or buy without demand or notice as herein provided.

7. Payment of Indebtedness Upon Demand; Right of Offset

You shall at all times be liable for the payment upon demand of any obligations owing from you to Atomic Brokerage, and you shall be liable to Atomic Brokerage for any deficiency remaining in any such accounts in the event of the liquidation thereof (as contemplated in this Section or otherwise), in whole or in part, by Atomic Brokerage or by you; and you shall make payment of such Obligations upon demand. You authorize Atomic Brokerage to recover amounts you owe, and to debit, charge, or otherwise exercise a right of offset to recover funds from the balance in your Account, your external bank account, any Account you own with an Affiliate of Atomic Brokerage, or any other payment instrument linked to your Account. This authorization and/or right of offset shall survive termination of your Account and this Agreement. If Atomic Brokerage's attempt to recover funds is not successful, you agree that the authorization and/or right of offset hereunder includes a grant to Atomic Brokerage of any additional authorizations and/or rights of offset required to recover the amount you owe to Atomic Brokerage in complete compliance with any applicable laws, rules or industry regulations. Atomic Brokerage may take these actions without prior notice to you.

8. Sales/Short Sales

You promise to deliver all securities sold in your Account and to provide collateral of a type and amount acceptable to Atomic Brokerage for all short sales in your Account. Atomic Brokerage requires that a security be held in your Account prior to the acceptance of a sell order with respect to such security unless the order is specifically designated as a "short sale." If a security is not held in your Account and a sell order is processed, you must promptly deliver such security to Atomic Brokerage for receipt in good deliverable form on or before the settlement date. Any order accepted without negotiable certificates or positions in your Account will be subject, at Atomic Brokerage's sole discretion, to cancellation or buy-in. To ensure this will not occur, you agree to only place sell orders for securities owned by you and held in your Account at the time your order is placed.

Sale proceeds will not be paid to you or released into your Account until Atomic Brokerage has received the security in good deliverable form, whether from a transfer agent or from you, and the settlement of the security is complete. If the security is not received on or before settlement date, or as market conditions warrant, Atomic Brokerage may in its sole discretion purchase the security on the open market for your Account and may liquidate and close out any and all securities in your Account to pay for such purchase. In the event a security is bought in, you will be responsible for all resulting Losses incurred by Atomic Brokerage. You understand that you may execute short sales only in a margin Account and that such execution must comply with applicable short sales rules in the United States and/or applicable rules in the relevant non-U.S. jurisdiction. You agree to designate any order to sell a security which you do not own as a short sale, and understand that Atomic Brokerage will mark such an order as a short sale. You agree that any order which is not specifically designated as a short sale is a sale of securities owned by you, and that you will deliver the securities on or before settlement date, if not already in the account. If you fail to make delivery in the time required, Atomic Brokerage is authorized to borrow any such securities as necessary to make delivery for the sale, and you agree to be responsible for any loss you may thereby sustain, or which you may sustain because of your inability to borrow such securities.

9. Costs of Collection

Without limitation to any other indemnities in this Agreement, all losses, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, incurred and payable or paid by Atomic Brokerage in the (i) collection of a debit balance or any unpaid deficiency in any of your Accounts with Atomic Brokerage or (ii) defense of any matter arising out of your securities transactions, shall be payable to Atomic Brokerage by you.

Since you may be subject to a higher tax rate on these payment types, you should consult with your tax advisor to discuss the implications of this exception from reduced tax rates. By signing this agreement, you further certify that no tax advice has been given to you by Atomic Brokerage. By entering into this Agreement, you expressly assume responsibility for the tax implications and adverse consequences, which may arise from entering into this Agreement.

10. Pattern Day Trader

Atomic Brokerage will monitor trading activities and alert or restrict those customers at risk of qualifying as "pattern day traders." A pattern day trader, as defined under FINRA Rule 4210(f)(8)(B), is any customer who executes four or more day trades within five (5) Business Days, provided the number of day trades is more than six (6) percent of the total trades in the account during that period. All Accounts designated as a pattern day trading accounts will be required to maintain $25,000 equity at all times to continue day trading. It is important that you fully understand the risks involved in day trading securities, as described in the Day Trading Risk Disclosure. Further, you acknowledge that Atomic Brokerage does not promote Margin Account day trading.

11. Credit Investigation

In consideration of Atomic Brokerage's agreement to open your Margin Account, you authorize Atomic Brokerage to inquire from any source, including a consumer reporting agency, as to your creditworthiness and ongoing eligibility for the Margin Account including, without limitation, your business conduct, at any time, throughout the life of the Margin Account, and thereafter for debt collection or investigative purposes. If such an investigation is conducted, you understand that you have the right to make a written request, within a reasonable period of time, for a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of such investigation.

12. Other Agreements

In addition to the terms and conditions stated in this Margin Supplement, you acknowledge and agree that your Margin Account will be subject to the terms and conditions of all other agreements entered into between Atomic Brokerage and you relating to the purchase and sale of securities including but not limited to the Atomic Brokerage LLC Brokerage Agreement, the Carrying Broker Agreements, or any successor agreements, except to the extent that such other agreements are contrary to or inconsistent with this Margin Supplement. Those agreements are incorporated herein by reference as a part of this Margin Supplement. You hereby represent, warrant and agree you have received and read a copy of the Atomic Brokerage LLC Brokerage Agreement, the Carrying Broker Agreements, this Margin Supplement, and the Margin Disclosure Statement and shall abide by the terms of each as currently in effect or as they may be amended from time to time. For the avoidance of doubt, all provisions of the agreement not in conflict with the provisions contained herein shall apply to your Margin Account. You specifically acknowledge and agree that the provisions of the agreement related to securities transactions and settlement, payment of indebtedness, limitation of Atomic Brokerage's liability to you, provisions applicable to joint accounts, sales by you, the delivery of securities, cancellation of orders, confirmations and statements, and information regarding Securities Investor Protection Corporation or "SIPC" protection shall apply to your Margin Account.

13. Successors

You hereby agree that this Agreement and all the terms thereof shall be binding to your heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, and assigns. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of Atomic Brokerage's present organization and any successor organization, irrespective of any change or changes at any time in the personnel thereof, for any cause whatsoever.

14. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be deemed to have been made in the State of New York and shall be construed, and the rights and obligations of the parties shall be determined, in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without regard to conflicts of laws principles; provided that nothing herein shall be construed in any manner inconsistent with any rule or regulation of the SEC or a self-regulatory organization of which Atomic Brokerage is a member.

15. Severability

If any provision of the Agreement is held to be invalid, void, or unenforceable by reason of any law, rule, administrative order, or judicial decision, that determination shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of the Agreement.

16. Amendment

Except to the extent prohibited by applicable law, you understand, acknowledge, and agree that Atomic Brokerage may from time to time update, change, or amend, in its sole discretion, this Margin Supplement and such update, change or amendment will become effective immediately upon delivery to you of a notice of such Amendment or at such later date specified in the notice. You hereby consent to the delivery of any such notice by United States Mail, courier, or any method of electronic delivery described in the Atomic Brokerage LLC Brokerage Agreement. You understand, acknowledge and agree that your continued use of Atomic Brokerage's services under this Margin Supplement following any such notice constitutes your consent, acceptance, and agreement to the applicable Amendment, and that if you do not wish to agree to an Amendment, you may close the Margin Account. Except as specifically permitted in this Margin Supplement, no provision herein can be, nor deemed to be, waived, altered, modified, or amended unless agreed to in writing and signed by Atomic Brokerage.

17. Headings

The headings of each provision of this Agreement is for descriptive purposes only and shall not be deemed to modify or qualify any of the rights or obligations set forth in each such provision.

ATOMIC BROKERAGE LLC
MARGIN DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

We are furnishing this document to you to provide some basic facts about purchasing securities on margin, and to alert you to the risks involved with trading securities in a margin account. Before trading stocks in a margin account, you should carefully review the Margin Supplement Agreement that has been provided to you.. Consult with Atomic Brokerage regarding any questions or concerns you may have with your margin account(s).

When you purchase securities, you may pay for the securities in full or you may borrow part of the purchase price from Atomic Brokerage. If you choose to borrow funds from Atomic Brokerage, you will open a Margin Account with Atomic Brokerage. The securities purchased are the firm's collateral for the loan to you. If the securities in your account decline in value, so does the value of the collateral supporting your loan, and, as a result, the Atomic Brokerage can take action, such as issue a margin call and/or sell securities or other assets in any of your accounts held with the member, in order to maintain the required equity in the account.

It is important that you fully understand the risks involved in trading securities on margin. These risks include the following:

A. You can lose more funds than you deposit in the Margin Account.

A decline in the value of securities that are purchased on margin may require you to provide additional funds to Atomic Brokerage that has made the loan to avoid the forced sale of those securities or other securities or assets in your account(s).

B. Atomic Brokerage can force the sale of securities or other assets in your account(s).

If the equity in your account falls below the maintenance margin requirements or Atomic Brokerage's higher "house" requirements, Atomic Brokerage can sell the securities or other assets in any of your accounts held at Atomic Brokerage to cover the margin deficiency. You also will be responsible for any shortfall in the account after such a sale.

C. Atomic Brokerage can sell your securities or other assets without contacting you.

Some investors mistakenly believe that Atomic Brokerage must contact them for a margin call to be valid, and that the firm cannot liquidate securities or other assets in their accounts to meet the call unless the firm has contacted them first. This is not the case. Atomic Brokerage will attempt to notify their customers of margin calls, but they are not required to do so. However, even if Atomic Brokerage has contacted a customer and provided a specific date by which the customer can meet a margin call, Atomic Brokerage can still take necessary steps to protect its financial interests, including immediately selling the securities without notice to the customer.

D. You are not entitled to choose which securities or other assets in your account(s) are liquidated or sold to meet a margin call.

Because the securities are collateral for the margin loan, Atomic Brokerage has the right to decide which security to sell in order to protect its interests.

E. Atomic Brokerage can increase its "house" maintenance margin requirements at any time and is not required to provide you advance written notice.

These changes in Atomic Brokerage policy often take effect immediately and may result in the issuance of a maintenance margin call. Your failure to satisfy the call may cause the member to liquidate or sell securities in your account(s).

F. You are not entitled to an extension of time on a margin call.

While an extension of time to meet margin requirements may be available to customers under certain conditions, a customer does not have a right to the extension.

ATOMIC BROKERAGE LLC
MARGIN INTEREST CALCULATIONS

General Information Regarding Interest Charges

Clients carrying a Margin Account with Atomic Brokerage will be charged interest on credit extended by Atomic Brokerage for the purpose of making transactions in securities or for any other purpose. Information concerning interest computations and charges will be disclosed to clients in their account statements. Atomic Brokerage uses a base rate (“Base Rate”) to set margin interest rates. The “Base Rate” varies and will be determined by Atomic Brokerage assessing a number of factors, which may include commercially recognized interest rates (such as the broker call rate, the prime rate, the Federal funds or any successor rates), Atomic Brokerage’s cost of capital, industry conditions relating to extension of margin credit, and general market and competitive considerations.

Changes to Base Rate

Atomic Brokerage may change the Base Rate at any time without having to provide written notice to the Client. No notice is given for changes to the Base Rate or to the interest rate charged to Client due to fluctuations in the aggregate debit balance or value of Client’s Household Accounts. As used herein, the term “Household Accounts” means Client’s individual and joint accounts and accounts related to Client that share the same address and, at Client’s request, are consolidated for statement mailing purposes. Client may obtain current interest rate information on the Portal or by contacting Atomic Brokerage.

Method of Computing Interest

Interest will be computed and charged separately for each Margin Account maintained at Atomic Brokerage, as described below. Interest is charged on a daily basis for those days on which a Margin Account carries a net debit balance. The daily interest charge is equal to the debit balance on that day multiplied by the applicable interest rate and divided by 360. Daily interest charges are accumulated into a monthly total. The daily net debit balance includes any credit and debit balances in Client’s cash and Margin Accounts during the period. The total interest for a Margin Account during a particular interest period is computed by totaling the daily interest charges for that period and is posted to your Account on a monthly basis.

Short Sales

When Client sells a security short, the interest charged to Client will be computed daily based upon the market value of the securities sold short by Client and adjusted or “marked to market” daily by Atomic Brokerage. For example, when a security sold short by Client increases in market value, the interest that may be charged to Client will increase. Conversely, when a security sold short by Client declines in market value, the interest that may be charged to Client will decrease. Calculations for marking to the market will be made each business day.
